ACM Payment Processing Solutions and 3Delta Systems to Expand Power, Security and Value of Payment Choices for National Association of Credit Management

NACM Members to Enjoy Mix-and-Match Flexibility for Payment Services That Work Best for Them

MIAMI & CHANTILLY, Va. – January 5, 2010 – ACM Payment Processing Solutions \(ACM\), a leader in electronic payment processing providing the utmost in discounts to merchants, is partnering with 3Delta Systems, Inc.® \(3DSI\), a leader in secure online credit card payment solutions, to expand and enhance payment services for approximately 19,000 business credit and financial professionals who belong to the National Association of Credit Management \(NACM\) and its network of Affiliated Associations.

As the preferred provider of financial services to NACM members worldwide for more than 13 years, ACM will offer its suite of payment processing products along with those of 3Delta Systems so that NACM members get the best combination of low cost, security, flexibility and ease of use for processing payments – whether on paper or electronically. Now, NACM members who use 3DSI’s web-based processing gateway will automatically comply with Payment Card Industry Data Security Standards \(PCI DSS\), and those who include detailed, Level-3 line-item information with their credit and purchase card transactions will also qualify for the lowest possible interchange rates.

Under the joint agreement, NACM will continue to exclusively market ACM’s solutions to its vast membership base.

“In keeping with NACM’s efforts to improve the management of business credit and accounts receivable, we are excited about the robust payment processing capabilities that the ACM/3DSI partnership brings to our members,” said Robin Schauseil, president of NACM National. “ACM has been our preferred provider of financial services for well over a decade and the relationship has proven to be very beneficial to our affiliates and members. Now, with the creation of the ACM/3DSI partnership, our members can easily mix and match the processing services that work best for them. 3Delta Systems’ suite of PCI-compliant services with Level-3 line item detail qualifies merchants for the lowest possible interchange rate for their credit and purchase card transactions. 3DSI’s capabilities will enhance ACM’s existing broad product offering of customized services, which handles everything from paper to integrated electronic check and ACH processing. Combined, both companies’ service offerings make for an extremely powerful, secure and sophisticated payment processing gateway solution.”

“For years, we’ve had clients use 3Delta Systems’ advanced payment services who were also NACM members,” said Aaron Bills, chief operating officer and founder of 3Delta Systems. “By partnering with ACM, I’m confident we’ll help NACM members sleep better at night, knowing their confidential payment data is safe. We’ll save them money, too. On average, 3Delta Systems customers save 30 percent on their payment transaction costs. And, as a leading Software-as-a-Service \(SaaS\) provider, NACM members will benefit from on-demand, real-time reporting and secure transaction management online that requires no additional software, hardware or customization by the user,” Bills added.

“ACM remains committed to providing low-cost, high performance payment processing solutions to NACM,” said Dean Middleton, President of ACM. “Our partnership with 3DSI now expands our product offering and provides even more exciting payment alternatives to NACM members and their customers. We are pleased to partner with 3DSI, the industry leader in credit card processing solutions. Both ACM and 3DSI are well-known leaders in the space each occupies within the payments processing arena and, together, we make a formidable team.”
